MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL.

VOLUME VIII.—NEW SERIES. MILWAUKEE TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 3, 1852. WHOLE NUMBER 2360

Milwaukee Daily Sentinel.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING, (SUNDAYS EXCEPTED,) BY

RUFUS KING & CO.,

AT THE OFFICE,

Nos. 205 & 207 EAST WATER STREET,

CORNER OF WISCONSIN STREET,

IN THE SECOND, THIRD, AND FOURTH STORIES OF LUDINGTON'S NEW BRICK BLOCK.

TERMS:

THE DAILY SENTINEL will be left at the door of City subscribers at SIX DOLLARS a year, payable quarterly or 50 Cents a Month; or, 12½ Cents a Week, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

TRI-WEEKLY SENTINEL.—THREE DOLLARS a year, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE, AND THE PAPER DISCONTINUED WHEN THE PERIOD FOR WHICH IT IS PAID, EXPIRES.

WEEKLY PAPER.—TWO DOLLARS a year, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE, AND THE PAPER DISCONTINUED WHEN THE PERIOD FOR WHICH IT IS PAID EXPIRES. To CLUBS of TEN or MORE, to one address, the Weekly will be sent for ONE DOLLAR A COPY.

TO OUR ADVERTISERS.

IN ORDER that there may be no misunderstanding in relation to advertising, we here state the rates determined upon in our daily papers, from Jan. 1st, 1851:

1 square	per year,		$12 00	1 square,	2 weeks,		$2 75
1 "	9 months,		10 50	1 "	1 "		1 50
1 "	6 "		8 00	1 "	5 times,		1 38
1 "	5 "		6 00	1 "	4 "		1 25
1 "	3 "		5 00	1 "	3 days,		1 00
1 "	2 "		5 00	1 "	2 "		0 75
1 "	6 weeks,		4 50	1 "	1 "		0 50
1 "	1 month,		4 00
1 "	3 weeks,		3 50

Twelve lines Nonpareil (or less) make a square. Leaded advertisements, "after reading matter," 50 per cent. advance on the above rates.

One sqr. for a year, with a change once a week, $25; 2 sqrs. $35; 1 sqr. with a change every day, $50; 2 sqrs. $100; 1 sqr. with four changes a year, $25; (DAILY PAPER not to contain four changes a year.) No paper will be discontinued (unless at the discretion of the proprietors,) until all arrearages are paid.

Persons wishing to discontinue their yearly or casual advertising, must give notice at the Counting Room. All yearly advertisers discontinuing their advertising before the year is out, will be charged at the above rates.

The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to their own immediate business, and all advertisements for the benefit of other persons, or on other business, must be paid for at the usual rates.

Communications, the effect of which is to promote private interests, to be paid for at the rate of 50 Cents per square for a single insertion.

In all cases where advertisements are sent in, marked "DAILY AND WEEKLY," they will be charged 50 Cents per square for the first insertion, and 25 Cents for each subsequent insertion in the Weekly.

Advertisements not accompanied with written directions, will be inserted one month, and charged accordingly.

Refer to L. J. Higby, Thomas P. Williams, and Kellogg, Strong & Co., Milwaukee.

THE undersigned would respectfully solicit the attention of dealers in and consumers of Coal in Milwaukee to our Card, as above. The Bolivar Coal is unquestionably superior to any other mined in Ohio, for Grate, Blacksmithing, Machinery, or Domestic purposes; and for Steam purposes, is superior to any except Briar Hill. It is peculiarly well adapted to Shipping, as its extreme hardness renders it capable of bearing any amount of handling, without waste. It can be afforded considerably cheaper than Briar Hill, and for most purposes is better.

It is our wish to introduce the article, and we respectfully solicit orders, confident that a trial is only necessary to convince any of the truth of the above assertion.

The above line of Steamboats, carrying direct to our Dock at Buffalo, and all goods consigned by this line for the Upper Lakes will be shipped (unless otherwise ordered or contracted) by Steamboats, an arrangement with but one, or possibly two exceptions. The Eckford is the only line not interested in or connected to a Propeller Upper Lake Line; and by endeavoring to sustain a line of Steamboats on that route, the Proprietors hope to receive the support and patronage of the Merchants of the Western States, when interest demands the maintenance of a line of such a class of Boats. (Between Maiden Lane and Wall Street,)

NEW YORK.

THE SUBSCRIBER PLACED HIS FIRE AND BURGLAR-Proof Iron Safe in competition with the whole world at the great Exhibition in London, for which an impartial jury awarded him a medal.

The American Fair, held last Fall at Castle Garden, also awarded to him a gold medal for the best Fire-Proof Safe, and he has never failed to obtain the highest premium when his Safe has been put in competition with others for that purpose. Certificates have been received from the following well-known mercantile houses, who have had their books, papers and money preserved in these superior Safes within the last thirty days, and can, with many others, be seen at my store, viz. Messrs. Stilwell & Monteros, and Mr. J. L. Watkins, in the Fulton Street fire; Messrs. Fisher & Robinson, and Messrs. John Lockwood & Co. in the great fire corner of Liberty and Nassau streets, and Messrs. Brood & Bowman, in Jersey City.

I am the proprietor of HALL'S PATENT LOCK, which obtained a medal (in the name of Adams & Co., Boston,) at the World's Exhibition, and is considered the best Lock for the price, ever invented, being proof against powder, and the Key is no larger than a cent, and can be made changeable.

I invite all purchasers to a close and careful investigation before purchasing, and decide for themselves, who makes the best Fire, Burglar and Damp-Proof Safes combined.

SALAMANDER SAFES.

WILDER'S PATENT AND RICH'S PATENT COMBINED.

$100,000 SAVED.

FIRE in Pearl Street and Fletcher Street, New York—Three Stores and their contents destroyed. Deeds before words!

RICH'S SAFES AGAIN!

ELEVEN SAFES of different makers consumed, with their contents! The Safe made by Rich & Co. defied the flames and brought out its contents without a mark of fire upon them!

MR. GILBERT'S LETTER.

THE FIRE IN FLETCHER AND PEARL STS., NEW YORK.

New York, Dec. 20, 1851.

Messrs. STEARNS and MARVIN, successors to C. Rich & Co., No. 146, Water street, New York—Sirs: when the fire was consuming my place of Business, No. 216, Pearl Street, I was absent in Rensselaer County, testing a new cleaning apparatus in connection with my Excelsior Thrasher, and did not read the account until I was fearful it was too late to save my books which were placed in one of your safes, purchased from Mr. Marvin some years ago. My fears were not allayed when I found it necessary upon my return to apply the Croton Water 40 hours before I was enabled to commence operations; after which, it required 54 hours of labor and application to raise the Salamander from its ashy bed. You may judge of my anxiety during this delay, and my agreeable surprise upon opening the safe in the presence of a number of gentlemen, to find my books and papers saved, and as legible as they were previous to the fire. The intense heat to which the Safe was subjected, can be conjectured from the condition of another safe, (not a Salamander) of which an iron skeleton frame only remained, and not a vestige of a book. They were companions in the same office, on the second floor, from which they fell upon crates of earthen ware in the cellar, the ruined safe upon the Salamander. If their position had been reversed, not even the skeleton would have remained. My loss over the insurance is $1,800, yet the salvation of my books in your Salamander, with the representatives of $100,000, and important documents which could not be duplicated, has fully compensated me.

It will afford me great pleasure to exhibit the new safe purchased of you, and explain its merits, at my present office, No. 231 Pearl street, where I shall remain until the new building, No. 216, is erected.

Yours respectfully, JOSEPH G. GILBERT.

The undersigned invite country merchants and those interested in the preservation of their books from fire, (but particularly those having Rich's safe in use) to call at the depot 146 Water street, New York, to see the interior of Mr. Gilbert's safe with the books undisturbed, which he has kindly permitted to remain for the satisfaction and gratification of the public.

All the profits are divided among the insured, and on Policies for the Whole of Life, will be made available in part payment of Premiums, after the dividend of 1853.

The Premium is paid in Cash annually, or may, if desired, be paid semi-annually, or quarterly, by adding interest to the deferred payments. The CASH principle adopted by this Company, secures to the parties for whose protection insurance may be effected, the WHOLE of the benefits, without subjecting them to the heavy drawback of accumulated premium notes.

Persons may effect insurance upon their lives, or upon the lives of others. Married women can insure the lives of their husbands, for their own BENEFIT and for the protection of their children.

Pamphlets explanatory of the principles of Life Insurance, and illustrative of its advantages, may be had, with form of application, and rates of premium, at the office of the Company, No. 35 Wall street, or from any of its Agents.

Capital over $165,000—in Cash and Premium Notes

THIS Company offers unrivalled facilities for the insurance of Buildings and Personal Property against fire. The advantages offered are security beyond the reach of circumstances, as the real estate insured is by law bound for the assessment made to cover losses beyond the power of evasion. Every person insured is a member of the Company, and entitled to one vote. The cost of insurance does not exceed one-third as much as in Stock Companies, saying nothing of the increased security and the incomparable ease with which losses are settled. During the last five years this Company have issued 2800 Policies, and made but three assessments at a cost to the property insured, not exceeding two mills on the dollar. Its business is principally confined to this State.

AUGUST 3, 1852.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SENTINEL.

The Scottish Clans at Niagara---General Muster of the People.

NIAGARA FALLS, July 29th, 1852.

The Golden Gate, Capt. WHITAKER, which left Milwaukee on Monday morning, July 26th, counted among her passengers a few good Scott men on their way to the Lundy's Lane Celebration at Niagara Falls. A pleasant run over a smooth sea, in a good boat, brought us betimes to Chicago. Here our party received an accession of a few more of "the same sort," and at half-past 9 at night, we were off, by way of the Southern Michigan Railroad, for Buffalo and Niagara. It was our first experience on this route. The country and the road were alike new to us, and our "first impressions" decidedly favorable. We found the track remarkably smooth for a new one; the cars neat and comfortable; the conductors civil, and the country through which the road passes, as seen by moonlight, both picturesque and attractive. A few miles east of Chicago the Railroad finds and follows the Southern shore of our magnificent Lake Michigan. A bright moon lit up the landscape, and a fresh breeze from the North precipitated a glorious surf upon the pebbly beach. There was something exceedingly exhilarating, as we sped along after our fleet and fiery iron courser, in the sparkling crests and deep-toned music of the far-rolling waves of Lake Michigan, which fling their spray upon the very track of the Railroad.

A rapid and comfortable ride brought us, at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, to Monroe, the Eastern terminus of the Railroad, and within a brief space after our arrival, passengers and baggage were all safely transferred to the Southern Michigan, Capt. PERKINS. The fame of this superb steamer has already gone abroad throughout the Western States, and rendered superfluous any panegyric of ours. It may, however, interest our readers to know that COBURN is the Steward of the Southern Michigan, and is the last man to forget his old round-the-lake friends. Six hours run brought us to Cleveland, where our load, already large, received an accession of several hundreds. We thought our complement of seven hundred passengers a full allowance, but were informed that no less than three boats had left Cleveland the night before, each with larger loads than that which the Southern Michigan carried.

Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock found us at Buffalo, and after a "hasty," but unexceptionable breakfast at the American, we took the cars for Niagara. Two trains, full-freighted, had already preceded us, and ours, the third that morning, was so uncomfortably crowded, that seats on the trunks in the Baggage Car were at a premium. Such, too, we were assured, had been the case with all the Railroad trains, steamboats and other public conveyances, leading to the gathering-place, for three days past: and we were not, therefore, wholly unprepared for the imposing spectacle which met our eyes, as we reached Niagara.

The grand Council of the Scott men of New-England, New York, Pennsylvania, the Middle, Western and South-Western States, was already in Council. A very fine array of uniformed Volunteer Companies occupied a large field, hard by the Falls, and attracted thousands of spectators. At some distance from this point, in the midst of a fine grove, the civic gathering was held. It was most imposing in numbers, in character, and in enthusiasm. The surviving veterans of the War of 1812 were there, in great numbers, to give in their personal evidence to the merits and qualifications of WINFIELD SCOTT. Distinguished men, from all parts of the Union, had come there, to bear their testimony, also, to the eminent fitness of the great Soldier and greater Pacificator, for the highest post in the gift of a Free People. There, too, were thousands and thousands of the Yeomanry of the country, assembled to commemorate a glorious triumph of the American arms and to do honor to the gallant Chief whose efforts and example so largely contributed to that signal Victory.

From mid-day until far into the afternoon speaker after speaker addressed the multitude, and ably and eloquently enforced the claims of WINFIELD SCOTT to the Presidency of the Republic, and right heartily did the SOVEREIGN PEOPLE, there assembled, ratify and respond to these suggestions. There was music too, of the right sort, in the intervals of the speaking, and some of the spirit-stirring chorusses were given with a will that overpowered for the moment the ceaseless thunder of the mighty Cataract. Estimates differ considerably as to the number in attendance, ranging from twenty-five to seventy thousand; my own judgement was that the aggregate reached full Forty Thousand. But aside from the vastness of the concourse, it was remarkable for the spirit which animated its proceedings and the confidence of Victory felt by almost every individual in the immense mass. From all quarters of the Union: from the North, South, East and West; from New England, the Middle States, the Valley of the Mississippi and even the supposed disappointed and disaffected South, the reports were most encouraging. There can be no question that the friends of WINFIELD SCOTT all over the Union go into the contest with firm front, serried ranks, and the most undoubting conviction that Victory in this, as in all his previous Campaigns, will perch upon the standard of their noble leader.

I found the numerous Hotels on the American side of the Falls overflowing with guests, and no chance of getting quarters there. Happily a friend at the Clifton House, on the Canada side, advised me that there were yet one or two spare rooms in that establishment, and thither I went, on Wednesday afternoon, after the Convention had adjourned, to gaze—as who ever tires of gazing?—upon the matchless panorama which Niagara offers to the view. The CLIFTON is one of the most happily located and best kept Hotels in the country. It fronts both Falls and affords, from its long and lofty piazzas, the most magnificent views of the great Cataract and of the "blue-rushing" and foam-flecked Niagara. The wealthy and enterprizing proprietor of the Hotel and the adjacent grounds (Mr. ZIMMERMAN) has expended a good deal of money in their embellishment, and the Landlord, Mr. GEORGE SHEARS, understands his business perfectly and makes his guests, whether they remain for a day or a month, feel perfectly at home. A capital band of music, composed of members of the Germania Society, contributed greatly to the entertainment of the gay company assembled at the Clifton. Pleasant drives abound in the vicinity of the house, and good horses and carriages are to be found at the Hotel. In fact, no appliance, or creature comfort is wanting to make the Clifton a most desirable stopping place for the tourist, or traveller: and then, superadded to all the ordinary attractions of a first-class Hotel in an inviting locality, is the enduring and unapproachable charm of the great Cataract itself.

> Age cannot wither it, nor custom stale
> Its infinite variety.

Its beauty, even in its ordinary phases, grows upon the eye and delights the more, the oftener you see it. Whether under the full blaze of the noon-day sun, or in the softer light of the yellow harvest moon, it equally challenges admiration; but when "the live thunder," leaping from crag to crag, or darting from the storm-cloud to the earth, lights up the scene and the rattling peals reverberate among the rocks and hills—when, at one breath, the Falls stand out in intense and startling brilliancy and the next sink instantaneously into the deepest gloom—then indeed, its beauty becomes unearthly and pen and tongue alike fail to portray its wonderful sublimity. It is a masterpiece of Nature, whose "counterfeit" is beyond the skill of any human Artist.

R. K.

The Sunday Question.

The Banner of Saturday, in reply to the communication of the Rev. Dr. IVES in our paper of the same morning, discharges a broadside of Billingsgate at that gentleman. We suppose that it is the best, perhaps the only answer the case admits of. The Banner apparently thinks that this is not a "free country," unless they are at liberty to beat "the Priests."

The Volksfreund singles out for special malediction and abuse, from among the fifteen hundred signers to the Sunday petition, CALEB WALL and the "seventeen priests." It is an unpardonable offence in the eyes of the Volksfreund clique for these gentlemen to ask that the law for the observance of the Sabbath be enforced in our city.

The Free Democrat of Saturday thinks that the editor of the See Bote stands convicted of wilful falsehood, because, in reply to his statement that the Theatres in Hamburgh were closed on Saturday evenings, Mr. HEYER publishes extracts from a Hamburg paper in 1847, showing that theatrical representations took place there both on Saturday and Sunday evenings. It is to be remarked, in the first place, that the statement in the See Bote related to the law or custom there, up to 1840, and can scarcely be gainsayed by Mr. HEYER's testimony touching occurrences seven years thereafter! And it is further noteworthy that the publication of such reports in a Hamburg paper is no more conclusive proof that no law exists there, closing the Theatres on Saturday evening, than the advertisement of a Sunday Ball, in the Banner of the 31st ult., is that there is no law on our Statute Book prohibiting and punishing such violations of the Sabbath

We copy portions of these advertisements:

MENOMONEE GARDEN.—Brass Band on the next and all following Sundays. C. T. MELMS.

MILWAUKEE GARDEN.—Next Sunday, August 1st, Brass Band in the Garden, and dancing in the evening. GEO F. STECHE, THOS. LORENZEN.

It is said that a City Ordinance is necessary to put a stop to the desecration of the Sabbath, and the matter, we understand, will be brought before the Common Council at its next meeting.

COMFORT FOR THE AFFLICTED.—The Morning News, in reply to a paragragh in the Albany Evening Journal, asserting that Gen. SCOTT's nomination is "everywhere hailed with delight" in the West, gravely assures its readers that, so far at least as Wisconsin is concerned, it is not so—that in this State there is "deep and general disappointment" because Mr. WEBSTER is not the whig candidate, and that it has actually conversed with "an intelligent, professional gentleman and uniform whig," who still hopes for the nomination of Mr. WEBSTER, as an independent candidate, and if he is not nominated, don't mean to vote at all. Lest the declaration of this single "professional gentleman" should not sufficiently console and revive its readers, the News adds that similar "assurances are made to it by Webster whigs every day." We have not the least objection to the News retailing and its readers swallowing any amount of such gammon. They are entirely at liberty to look upon the Scott men of Wisconsin as few, feeble and disheartened, and to go to sleep in the soothing conviction that they can carry this state for Pierce, without a struggle. But we cannot help reminding them of the pleasant story this same News told, only a fortnight since, about Mr. COLLINS, backing it up with a promise of "certificates!" Well, Mr. COLLINS thought it worth while to explode the fiction: yet the promised "certificates" have never come to light!

CLUMSY DODGE.—The News of yesterday publishes, as genuine, a communication, purporting to come from "a true American Whig," lauding Gen. SCOTT as a "Native American" and denouncing Gen. PIERCE for endeavoring to eradicate the Anti-Catholic test from the New Hampshire Constitution. The News, by way of humoring the joke, is even at the pains to argue the question with its annonymous correspondent! The device is too shallow to impose upon its own readers and only serves to illustrate the desperate need of the opposition for available arguments against Gen. SCOTT.

☞ The Free Democrat of Saturday, referring to Mr. DURKEE, the present representative from this Congressional District, says:—

> But the people from this district have spoken for his services for one more term, as their representative, and they will not be willing to relieve him from the obligation to serve them at this crises.

Which is tantamount to saying that Mr. DURKEE intends to run again.

LUNDY'S LANE.—Placards were posted up along the road from the Suspension Bridge to the battle ground, to this effect:

> "Road to Lundy's Lane. Battle fought between 1,600 British troops and 4,000 Americans, in which the latter retreated from the field with the loss of all their guns, and 300 prisoners to the British!"

The thousands of visitors to the ground were vastly amused at this evidence of Canadian spite, and at the remarkable coincidence between the opinions of Gen'l Scott's enemies on both sides of the line.

The Scott Volunteers.

At the regular meeting of the Scott Volunteers of this city, on Saturday evening, a goodly number were present, and the best of feeling manifested. The following letter was read from Mr. FINCH, declining the post of President, and giving his reasons therefor:

MILWAUKEE, 30th July, 1852.

To the Scott Volunteers:

GENTS:—I am greatly obliged for the manifestation of your partiality in selecting me as your presiding officer. My business arrangements, however, are such, that it will be impossible for me to discharge its duties with that efficiency, the occasion demands. I therefore respectfully decline the proffered distinction, hoping and believing that you will be able to select some person from your ranks, who will more than supply my place.

With the assurance that I shall be with you, in heart and feeling in all laudable efforts to secure the election of the gallant Scott; and that I shall be on hand as frequently as possible at roll call, ready to "train," or do duty as a private; and also with the hope that the Volunteers will keep their "camp-fires burning," and their "knapsacks slung," I am with greatful consideration,

Your obedient servant,
A. FINCH, Jr.

The letter was received with hearty applause for the good feeling therein manifested, although it was regretted that the writer's engagements obliged him to decline. On motion, the Volunteers proceeded to ballot for President, and the choice fell upon ALBERT SMITH, Esq., an old campaigner, and one of the old sort of Whigs, who accepted the post, and entered at once upon his duties with a brief and pointed address. DAVID FERGUSON was elected Treasurer.

A. J. LANGWORTHY, of the 2d Ward, was present, just returned from the Lundy's Lane Celebration, and being called upon, gave a brief account of the doings at that vast gathering of the friends of WINFIELD SCOTT. Various matters of business were attended to, and the meeting broke up with three cheers for SCOTT and GRAHAM, after notice had been given for a meeting to-night, at the Head Quarters, of all the officers of the Association. We copy the list of officers below, and the persons named will consider this notice an urgent request to be on hand promptly at 8 o'clock:

President, ALBERT SMITH; Vice Presidents, 1st Ward, A. W. HATCH, S. S. DAGGETT, 1st Ward,—C. COMSTOCK, A. ROESLER, 2d Ward,—R. G. OWEN, WM. BROWN, JR., 3d Ward,—J. E. GOODALL, P. B. HILL, 4th Ward,—J. L. BURNHAM, M. DELANY, 5th Ward;

Marshal, L. H. COTTON; Recording Secretary, J. HAMILTON; Cor. Secretary, W. H. WATSON; Executive Committee, WM. FINKLER, A. J. LANGWORTHY, WM. BROWN, C. H. WILLIAMS, WM. A. HAWKINS.

Meeting of the Bar—Death of Judge Sandford of New York.

MILWAUKEE, July 30th, '52.

Upon the information of the death of Hon. LEWIS H. SANDFORD, the members of the Bar of this city convened at the U. S. Hotel, the Hon. LEVI HUBBELL in the chair, and C. K. WATKINS officiating as Secretary, when the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That we have heard with deep regret of the sudden death of the Hon. LEWIS H. SANDFORD of New York city, on his return from a visit to this city.

Resolved, That by the death of Judge SANDFORD the bench has lost one of its most distinguished members and brightest ornaments, who, in the various stations of life, as a lawyer, a citizen, and Judge, so discharged the duties of each as both to confer honor upon himself, and upon the State which claims him as her son.

Resolved, That the President and Secretary of this meeting be requested to communicate these proceedings to the family of the deceased with an expression of our sympathy.

LEVI HUBBELL, Pres'nt.
C. K. WATKINS, Sec'y.

The Wholesale Murder on the Hudson.

We give up considerable space to-day to accounts of the terrible disaster on the Hudson. The Captain of the boat, it is understood, declares that there was no racing, but the testimony on the Coroner's inquest, and the declarations of the surviving passengers, show the contrary beyond a doubt. Long before the fire broke out, the portion of the boat around the engines was so heated that it was almost impossible to pass from one end of the boat to the other. A Western steamboat Captain on board expressed his opinion that tar or rosin must have been used to produce the heat. Remonstrance after remonstrance was made by the passengers, but to no effect, and when at length the flames had broken out, the unfortunate craft was beached bows on, while the flames prevented those who were astern from getting forward. There does not seem to have been a single boat belonging to the steamer, and certainly none in use. Within five minutes from the breaking out of the fire, all hope of saving the vessel was abandoned, and she was run a-shore.

The list of victims is already a dreadful one, and it was the opinion of many that more passengers were burned than were drowned. Among the list is the name of Mrs. BAILEY, wife of Prof. Bailey of West Point, and sister of Col. SLAUGHTER, U. S. Receiver at Mineral Pt.

The body of Hon. STEPHEN ALLEN, Ex-Mayor of N. Y. was recovered on the 29th. Mr A. J. DOWNING, the widely known and esteemed editor of the Horticulturalist, was among the victims of this awful fire.

A meeting of the surviving passengers was held at the Astor House on the morning of the 29th, at which many interesting facts were elicited, and resolutions passed censuring those concerned in managing the boat for their reckless disregard of human life.

STILL LATER:—The reporter for the Albany Register, who visited the scene of the terrible calamity, enumerates fifty-seven bodies found up to 7 o'clock Friday evening, and adds:

> Besides these, we heard of sixteen others known to be lost, which would make the total, thus far, 73.
> As each train brought its quota of searchers after missing friends, and as it is asserted that the Clay had upwards of 400 on board at the time of the disaster, it is more than probable that full 100 have perished.
> No calamity equal to it has before occurred on the Hudson River.

HOW TO DO IT.—Mr. COSTIGAN, the Irish Democrat who gave the following toast at St. Patrick's Festival, in New York, may be somewhat ultra in his suggestion to exclude all British manufactures, but he has hit upon the right theory after all:

> Protection to American Industry: The most legitimate and effectual punishment we can inflict on John Bull, for his tyranny and oppression to Ireland. Let us have a high tariff, high enough to exclude the importation of all British manufactures.

IN DISTRESS.—The Green Bay Advocate comes to us in great distress of mind about the bad conduct of the friends of Gen. Scott in celebrating one of his many victories. It is a pity that we could not have had the benefit of the Advocate's advice before the Niagara meeting. Perhaps a general circulation of it down east might have prevented all the harm done. As it is, all we can do is to offer our Green Bay friend our sincere commiseration in its trouble.

☞ PIERCE and KING are the choice of England for President and Vice President of the United States. The British Press and People take a lively interest in the result of the Election. The reason for their preference for PIERCE over SCOTT is that the former is in favor of a British, and the latter of an American Tariff.

THE WORK UP NORTH.—A friend in Waushara Co., enclosing the cash for a club of 20 Weekly Sentinels, writes as follows:

"We are up and doing for Gen'l SCOTT, and you may depend on a good vote from this part of the State. All are satisfied that he is the man for the times."

RIVER AND HARBOR BILL PASSED THE HOUSE!—INDICATIONS IN THE SENATE.—A Washington despatch of Saturday morning says:

> The River and Harbor Bill passed the House this A. M., by a vote of 100 to 75, and was then sent to the Senate, where an effort made to secure its immediate consideration, was prevented by Parliamentary tactics.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

NIAGARA, Wednesday, July 28th, 1852.

Dear Sentinel:

Yesterday afternoon at about 3 o'clock, the speaking commenced from two stands, and was kept up without intermission until near 6 o'clock, then the meeting adjourned to 7½, when Ex-Gov. Jones, of Tenn., spoke for an hour and a half with great force and effect, and was listened to with intense interest. He dwelt particularly upon the great points of distinction and difference between the two political parties of the day, the questions of the Tariff, and improvement of Rivers and Harbors. None can doubt the position of the Loco Foco party who heard his masterly effort last evening, and their opposition to these ruling items of the Whig platform will be remembered and acted upon through the present canvass by thousands who listened to his telling and effective speech on that occasion.

Ewing, of Ohio, officiated as President, and made a very brief but eloquent opening address. Horace Greely made a good speech, characterized by his usual force and earnestness. The immense multitude were also addressed by Messrs. Davis of Maryland, Col. Schouler, of Boston, Colfax of Indiana, Gov. Hunt, of New York, Judge Johnson, of Ohio, Lieut. Drew, of Kentucky, and many others. A Mr. Daniels responded for Wisconsin. I know not from whence he hails, and could not find out—but he spoke encouragingly to the Convention as regards our own State, and promised it without peradventure for Scott and Graham. Those of us who were from Badgerdom confidently responded, Amen.

The crowd seems to have increased largely since yesterday, and while unnumbered thousands were listening to the speakers, I visited the Falls and Parade Ground, and found vast throngs at each place, and the roads leading to them full. I have heard no estimate of the gathering to-day placed below 50,000, and generally as high as 70,000. A friend of mine, a Michigander, whom I consider a good judge of acres, says there is on the ground about the speaker's stands, somewhere between 40 and 50 acres of men and women, and he thinks there is enough in and about town to cover an "80" about as close as it would be convenient for them to stand. At any rate, you may put it down in your memorandum book, that the Scott men are fully alive, and will give a good account of themselves in November. The military review under Gen. Swan was very imposing, and added much to the pleasure of the occasion. There were several companies from the West, and among the rest, an Irish Company from Cleveland, who seemed to me to be the best uniformed, the best disciplined, and best drilled of any on the ground. The time for adjournment having arrived, the vast multitude sought the various avenues of escape from Niagara towards their several localities, and for several hours it seemed as if no impression were made on the numbers left, although the Steamers and Rail Roads were taxed to their utmost capacity, and dispersed the eager multitude by the thousands.

As it will be too late to forward this by mail to night, and considering myself a somewhat faster and surer mail than Uncle Sam's, I will take it myself. Yours, JACK.

ON BOARD THE ATLANTIC, }
Friday Morning, 30th. }

Last evening, in Buffalo, Defiance Fire Company, No. 10, and a Military Company, escorted the Kentucky Rangers to the Buckeye State, on their way home. Lieut. Drew, of the Kentuckians, in a very neat and pretty speech, returned the thanks of the company for the many kindnesses received by them, and especially to Gen. Williams, who hospitably "offered his roof" to them during their stay. Gen. W. made a very felicitous and thoroughly Western reply, and the immense throng who had assembled to see them off, set up a shout loud and long, and the brazen throat of the gun captured by Capt. Sam Gring, a gun himself, then commander at Cerro Gordo, gave us a specimen of its music through a parting salute, and the people moved in silence to their homes. We had last night a tornado which lasted a few minutes and laid the Atlantic on her beam ends.

A resolution has just been introduced at a meeting in the cabin, thanking the Captain and crew for so skillfully saving us from a watery grave. I am thankful for small favors, but thought the squalls inside far exceeded those outside our noble ship. Yours, JACK.

For the Daily Sentinel.

Messrs Editors:

The authors of the insulting and abusive article in the Free Democrat, against the highly respected Pastor of the principal Catholic Church in this city, insult the Irish by appealing to them to support the assertion, that like violations to those practiced here on the Lord's day, are common and approved of by the Catholic Church of Ireland.

As a "candid Irishman," I deny that the authorities of the Church have directly, or indirectly countenanced such abuses in Ireland; on the contrary, they have waged a perpetual war against them, and as they do here, mourned over the prevarication of their fallen and unfortunate members. In proof of what I say, I will quote the following answer to the question, how the Lord's day should be observed, from an Irish Catechism universally taught and approved by the Catholic Church in Ireland:

> "Though the day of our Sabbath be different from that of the Jews, yet we are under as great an obligation to sanctify it by acts of religion in an entire service of God; by assisting at the public worship of God if we can, by praying, hearing the word of God, putting our souls in a good state by penance, receiving, or at least disposing ourselves to receive, the holy Eucharist, so filling up the day with exercises of religion and spiritual holy works, as acts of faith, hope and charity, and hence, we are obliged, on this day, to refrain from all that is incompatible with these exercises.
> Beware of offending God on this day, whereby you give more scandal, and, instead of making it holy to God, you make it a feast to the devil."

In conclusion, I respectfully suggest to politicians, that it would be much better for the cause of Democracy, to refrain from identifying the party with those that transgress the law, and assail what all good citizens hold dear: if they do not they will drive the bone and sinew of democracy from their ranks, and consign themselves to political graves. Such are my sentiments, and the sentiments of every "candid Irishman" in the city of Milwaukee.

E. McGARRY,
A PIERCE MAN.

For the Daily Sentinel.

Messrs. Editors:—In your Saturday's paper, Rev. Mr. Ives has replied to our communication over his own signature, acknowledging himself the author of the article signed "Americans." But the character and style of the communication is so unbecoming a gentleman, a christian, and especially a teacher of the Christian religion, that self respect forbids us to hold any further controversy with him. We made our statements over our own names. He replies in the most bitter and vindictive spirit, applying to us the vilest epithets, and showing clearly, that, if he had the power, he would apply to us the saving tortures of the inquisition. From the clerical profession, such an exhibition is a sufficient revelation of character to all sensible and intelligent free-men. Mr. Ives is welcome to cultivate his peculiar talents in this field unmolested.

NARROW ESCAPE.—The Albany Register of Saturday last, referring to the burning of the Steamer Henry Clay, says: "Rev. Dr. Sprague and his wife had a narrow and providential escape. They left in the Armenia yesterday morning for New York, having directed the coachman to drive to the Henry Clay. It was late, and the Armenia being the boat they reached first, he drove them to her, and they went on board.

PIERCE CAMPAIGN PAPER.—The Albany Evening Journal enumerates the following campaign papers which have been started to support Pierce and King:

> London Times, London Leader, Manchester Examiner, Toronto Colonist, Montreal Herald, Philadelphia (Native) Sun.

City Matters.

Mrs. Emma G. Bostwick.

The following correspondence shows the high consideration in which this accomplished artist is held by the citizens of New York. Milwaukee will ever show free hospitality to real merit.

OFFICE JOURNAL OF COMMERCE, }
July 10, 1852. }

Messrs. Hans Crocker, George H. Walker, Rufus King, A. Mitchell, W. E. Cramer, J. K. Bartlett, S. M. Booth, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Gentlemen: David M. Stone, Esq., the commercial editor of the Journal of Commerce—a gentleman of the highest standing—has asked me to afford, through him, a suitable medium of introduction for Mrs Bostwick before the Milwaukee public, as a musical artist.

I beg you to favorably consider any representations he may make in this behalf.

Yours, respectfully,
EDWARD D. HOLTON.

OFFICE JOURNAL OF COMMERCE, }
July 10, 1852. }

Gentlemen: I avail myself of the kindness of Mr. Holton to introduce to you Mrs. Emma G. Bostwick, who proposes to give some musical entertainment in your city. We in New York consider her, as an artiste, inferior to none in the country, and second only to the incomparable departed Queen of Song. She is above all, a lady from one of our best families, and one whose private character may be held up as a safe model for your own daughters and sisters. In my own department in this paper, I have had occasion, frequently, to speak of the enterprise of your people, and to note progress in all which makes a State prosperous and great. I trust that you now vindicate your good taste, and return my poor endeavors in your behalf, by assisting one whose efforts to please you cannot but be successful, if you will only hear her. Give Mrs. B. a bumper, and call upon me for a return of the courtesy.

Yours, truly, DAVID M. STONE.

"THE WHITE SLAVE;" Tappan & Whittemore, Publishers, Boston.

Messrs. Rood & Whittemore have received early supplies of this book, and we have at length found time to examine the copy sent us. No person's name is given as the author, but we find it generally ascribed to Horace Mann, of Mass.—There is no truth in the report, as the book seems to be identical, with the exception of a few alterations to suit the present time, with the Abolition novel, "Archy Moore," written some years since by Richard Hildreth, now most known as the author of a history of the United States. Its general tenor is the same as that of Mrs. Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin," though it differs from that book in many respects.

It is the autobiography of a "White Slave," the principal incidents of which run as follows:

He is the son of Virginian by a mulatto Slave woman, and "Cassy," the heroine of the book, is a daughter of the same man, by another woman.

"Archy," the principal character, is at first a house servant, and well treated, but falls into disgrace, by exhibiting his attachment to Cassy, who repulses the advances of her master. Archy and the woman run away, and conceal themselves for a time, but are captured. He is whipped in a brutal manner, turned into the fields for a time, and sold. He passes from hand to hand, through various changes, until he is found upon a rice plantation in South Carolina. Here he is abused worse than ever. Finally, another slave (Thomas) whose wife is whipped so as cause her death, escapes with Archy to the swamps. They are pursued, and the overseer who killed the woman, coming upon them alone, is taken and shot by Thomas. They are soon captured, but escape by the aid of a little girl. Archy, putting on good clothes, and seizing a horse, in the saddlebags of whose owner he finds money, makes his way north. He goes to New York, where he is recognized by his late master, and seized, but escapes—goes to Boston, where he ships on board a vessel for Bordeaux. The scene is at the begi[illegible] of the last war with Great Britain.—T[illegible]essel is captured and Archy enlists as a white man on the British vessel. He behaves gallantly and is promoted to be commander of a vessel—makes prizes, and becomes rich. Years pass, and he comes back to look for his wife. He revisits all the old scenes, traces Cassy from place to place, and finds her at length in a slave auction room in New Orleans, and recovers her. The narrative of the adventures of Cassy and her son is also given in detail. Finally, they are all reunited, and return to New York, and sail for England.

The book is about half narrative and half lecture—the first lively and interesting, but without the deep pathos which is so striking a feature of "Uncle Tom"—the last bitter as gall could make it. The first describes many brutal scenes which are, beyond doubt, of frequent occurrence in the slave states, but does not vary its general tenor by giving the reader many pictures of home life as does its predecessor in the same line. "Uncle Tom" is a pathetic story of patient suffering under shameful abuse continued to death—the "White Slave" is full of deep, revengeful feeling—of bitter persecution bitterly avenged.—People differ in tastes, and this last book will be popular, beyond a doubt.

THE PACIFIC.—The steamer Arctic resumed her trips on this Lake yesterday and now leaves our port for Chicago, alternately with the Pacific, every morning at 8 o'clock A. M. During the absence of the Arctic, the staunch and swift Pacific has been doing double duty: leaving Chicago for this port every morning, and returning at night. This has kept her in almost constant motion, and allowed her officers and crew but very brief intervals for rest. Nevertheless they have been "up and dressed" all the time, and night or day has found Capt. Howe always at his post and ever attentive to the safety and comfort of his passengers.

GROCERIES.—The public's old acquaintance, JOHN McEWEN, invites attention to his extensive stock of Groceries lately opened at No. 59 East Water-st., especially to a very large and select lot of teas,—all of which he is ready to dispose of for a mere consideration.

Everybody knows that he furnishes large quantities of camphine for city consumption besides the above business. Give him a call.

LOCKPORT AND NIAGARA FALLS R. R.—Travellers eastward will find this new road, whose advertisement is in our columns to-day, a pleasant route to New York from Buffalo, giving them, by leaving in the early train, an opportunity of spending six hours at the Falls, and then resuming their journey so as to lose less time than by any other way. The road is newly laid, and in first rate order.

THE EASTERN MAIL.—Our Postmaster has not yet received any notice of the rumored transfer of the Eastern Mail from the Michigan Central to the Michigan Southern Railroad route. The mails to and from this city are still carried by the Central boats.

TREMONT HOUSE.—By Mr. KANE's advertisement it will be seen that the old Tremont House is to be let. It is in a central location, and a good house of its class, and ought to do a good business.

U. S. STEAMER MICHIGAN.—The U. S. Steamer Michigan, Commander BIGELOW, left our port for Mackinaw and the Sault yesterday.

☞ See Philips' advertisement of a new article of liquid glue, to be had in New York.

NEW WHEAT.—Dr. A. H. Platt of Lima has sent us a specimen of wheat of his own raising, which is called the "Hungarian Snow wheat," and is decidedly the finest we have seen in this State.—The heads are long and well filled, the berry plump and large.

☞ The crops in our county never looked as good as the present season, and the farmers have no reason to complain.—Sheboygan Mercury.

☞ The Albany Atlas is terribly indignant because somebody, as it says, has said that Frank Pierce was once "a wild colt." We suppose Frank never was a colt, though we have certainly heard of his decent from a horse.—Prentice.

MRS. BOSTWICK.—This lady, supported by able performers on the violin, flute, and piano, gives her first Concert here to-morrow evening at Gardiner's Hall. She has just concluded a series of concerts in Detroit and Chicago. From the latter place we have not heard, but the Detroit Tribune testifies as follows to her reception in that city:

> The first of her concerts for the season, was given by Mrs. Bostwick, at Firemen's Hall last evening. There was a large and fashionable audience in attendance, and she was greeted from time to time, with the most unmistakeable evidence of approval and delight. We must confess that we were very agreeably disappointed, as well in the power and compass of her voice as in its sweetness, melody and cultivation. We had formed a favorable opinion of her talents both as an artist and a vocalist, but we were not quite preppared for the remarkable richness of her voice and the "finish" of her execution. The grand cavatina of "Grace, Grace," from the opera of Robert Le Diable, and "Qui les voce" from Il Puritani, were performed with a beauty of execution that we have never heard excelled. But the Scotch ballad of "Down the burn, Davie," sung upon an encore of the latter, carried off the palm. It is, in the first place, one of the sweetest and most touchingly beautiful pieces ever written, and then it was sung in a style that took all hearts captive. No human being could have listened to it without admiration. One such a song should fill a house for a week with no other attraction, and sung as it was by Mrs. Bostwick, it should establish the fame of any woman as the fist or one of the first ballad singers of the day. The Bravura—"Happy Birdling of the Forest," "Erin weeps forsaken," and the Gipsey song, "Camp of Silesia," were performed with equal skill and scarcely less effect.

COMMERCIAL.

THE MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL, }
MILWAUKEE, August 3, 1852. }

The week past has been quite dull in the produce market, receipts having fallen off, owing to the engagement of the farmers in harvesting operations. Prices have scarcely been sustained, except as to oats, which have risen in value.

The first load of new Wheat was marketed on Saturday. It was a load of Italian and Red Chaff, mixed, and brought [illegible] per bushel. From every direction we hear the best accounts of the crop, and it is now certain to be the best one harvested for 5 years. The winter Wheat is everywhere excellent, and although the Spring Wheat is in many sections of the State short in the stalk, yet the heads are well-filled and plump. The Buffalo Express remarks concerning a handful of Wheat, plucked from the field of Geo. D. Threse, which we forwarded to Buffalo, "it equals the best Genesee Wheat we ever saw." We have copied from day to day through the week, such statements relative to the crop as we have found in our State exchanges. They all tell the same story, and that, we are glad to say, a good one.

ASHES—Prices for pots and pearls are as usual controlled by advices from N. Y., and purchases are made mostly at N. Y. rates, transportation off. We quote at $5a5,50.

CANDLES—Mould 9½@10c—Star 22@25c per lb by the box.

COAL—Lehigh $10,50—Chippewa $5,00@5,50—Erie $5,00.

COFFEE—Java 15@16c—Jamaica 11c—Laguayra 9½@10c—Rio 9½@10c—St. Domingo do.

FISH—White 6,50@7,00 per bbl—Cod scarce at 7c per lb—mackerel No. 1, $13, and scarce.

FLOUR—a dull market—receipts from the country light, and prices down in expectation of the new crop. We notice sales of 150 bbls at $3,00@$3,75 for qualities which the week previous sold at $3,75@4,25.

FRUIT—Apples dried 1.75@1.87½—peaches peeled 1.87½—raisins 2.50@2.75 by the box—currants 8@9c per lb.

GLASS—8x10, $1,25—10x12 and 10x14, $1,50.

GRAIN—Wheat—receipts moderate—prices range from [illegible] spring, and 55a65 for winter for the greater portion sold. Samples of very handsome wheat from fields now being cut are daily shown, amply bearing out our cotemporaries in their promises of the crops which we have copied. Shipped 10,000 bus.

OATS—supply low—shipping demand over till new crop comes in—shipments have reached about 150,000 bushels so far—we quote at 27c, which price is paid readily for home use: shipped last week 9400 bushels.

Barley—very little doing—we quote nominally at 26a28c.

Rye—ready sale at 40a42.

HIDES—in good demand at 3½@4c for green: the last figure only for well trimmed—8½ for dry—Calf and kip good, bring 12c dry.

HOPS—nominally 45@50c.

TEAS—Young Hyson 30@60c—Gunpowder and Imperial 40@60c—Canton 16@20.

TIN—No change.

WOOL—Small lots continue to arrive, and sales have been made through the week at 20@33c—most of the sales being at prices over 25c. Considerable lots, purchased in the country, have come in for shipment. The shipments for the week foot up 42,120 lbs.

Oswego, July 30.—Under the influence of the English and New York advices the wheat market is quiet. We heard of no transactions yesterday. The sale of Ohio white wheat quoted in our last at 92c, is said to have been erroneous, and that the same wheat had been offered at 88c without sale.

Sales 1000 bu oats at 38c, weight; 1000 bbls salt at 108c.

We quote canal freights at 26@27c for flour, 10½a11½c for wheat, and 9c for corn to New York. Lumber $2,65a3 to the Hudson.

VOLUME VIII. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL. NEW SERIES.

DAILY SENTINEL.

Terrible Catastrophe—Burning of the Steamboat Henry Clay.

From the New York Tribune of the 29th.

The Henry Clay left Albany at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, having on board, as near as could be ascertained, some 300 passengers. The Armenia left the same place a few minutes afterward. On the passage down the river there was as witnesses testify, a continuous strife or race between the boats. At one time the Clay crowded the Armenia almost upon the western shore, and forced her to drop astern, &c. The passengers on the H. C. finally became greatly alarmed on account of the racing, and some time before the fire a number of ladies were crying and running about the cabin, as if sensible that some catastrophe was impending. Some of the officers of the boat went among them, assured them that there was no danger, and tried to pacify them.

We are assured that the race had been so hotly contested that the boats had purposely missed some of their landings. The runners of the boats at the various landings appear to have been aware of the racing, since they were freely offering bets upon their favorites.

However, no accident or outrage occurred until a few minutes after the Henry Clay passed Yonkers, when it was discovered that the wood work near the boilers and flues were on fire. The alarm spread, but the officers of the boat (judiciously, without doubt) told the passengers that there was no danger.

The pilot, however, saw that no time was to be lost, and headed the boat for the eastern shore.—The river here is nearly two miles wide, and the boat in her regular course would have been a mile and a half from the east bank.

Before reaching the shore, the flames had spread so as almost to prevent communication between the fore and aft parts of the boat.

At about three or quarter past three o'clock, the boat came ashore, lying at right angles with the river, and the bow driving up some twenty-five feet on dry land, and plunging with tremendous force into the railroad embankment which is there some 6 or 8 feet high.

The shock overthrew the smokepipe, displaced everything moveable, and added not a little to the spreading of the flames. While the bow was high and dry, the greater portion of the boat, and unfortunately that which held nearly all the passengers, was in deep water.

The passengers immediately began to jump overboard. Those on the bow got off safely, and began to help the others. A board fence, near by, was instantly stripped, and the boards thrown into the water. By great exertion, a large majority of the passengers got ashore, some scorched, nearly all with loss of clothes, trunks, &c.

But the rapid spread of the fire, which forced the passengers at the stern overboard, was the cause of the loss of a large number of lives.

The scene was one of the most terrible character. Mothers with their clothes in flames, trying to save some dear child; children struggling in the water without a hand to help them; husbands and wives drowning together, rather than separate, and the remorseless fire rapidly destroying the last standing place of the helpless victims.

There were very few houses in the neighborhood and very little help could be had from the shore. But all who knew of it hastened to lend their aid.

When the 5 o'clock train passed (at about 4½ P. M.) the boat was nearly all consumed; the rescued passengers had dispersed, (except those who took the train,) and the worst was over.

As we said before, the number of bodies recovered before we left, at 9½ last night, was 25 or 23. But two or three of these showed any evidence of burning, and but one appeared to have been burnt to death—this was Mary Cooper. All the others were evidently drowned.

The boat was entirely destroyed before seven o'clock; nothing was left at 5 o'clock, except a fragment of the bow, some ten or twelve feet high, which burned slowly, like a warning beacon to light up the shapeless wreck of charred timbers and iron below.

Stephen Allen, Esq, and lady, were on board are supposed to be among the dead. Mr. A. was seen by Mr. Jewett of this City on the deck when the boat touched the shore. Mr. J. handed him a rope and his attention being drawn in another direction he lost sight of the old gentleman and did not see him afterward. Mr. Allen was a Director of the Hudson River Railroad, and formerly Mayor of New York, and about 84 years of age.—There is very little doubt but he is among the drowned.

Another unrecognized child, was a boy about a year and a half old, wearing a green coat and black beads around his neck.

Mrs. Colby, of Montpelier left four children to mourn the loss of a mother.

The running ashore is generally deemed to have been badly done. The bank was shelving and if the pilot had run diagonally upon the sand, many lives might have been saved, as the wind was blowing off shore, and would have kept the flames in the most advantageous position.

From the N. Y. Tribune, of July 30th.

An immense number of persons gathered yesterday at the scene of the disaster, most of them being in search of missing friends. Whenever a body was recovered, there was an immediate crowd and excitement until the person had been recognized.

There was a report in the city that the body of Stephen Allen had been found, but such was not the case.

It would be useless to detail the constantly recurring scenes of grief as one after another was dragged from the water and identified.

During the day thirty bodies were found, making in all fifty-three corpses. There are doubtless many others still in the water, under or in the wreck.

We think the number of people murdered by this occurrence will reach at least seventy!

We append lists, corrected as far as possible, of the names of the dead and missing:—

Mrs. Amelia C. Bancroft, wife of Stacy C. Bancroft, of Philadelphia, aged 58.

Total recognized, 37.

At 9 o'clock last evening there were still ten bodies which had not been recognized. One is supposed from the name on two handkerchiefs, to be J. J. Speed of Baltimore.

Missing.

Miss Catherine Dewitt, of Fishkill.

Mrs Hannah B. Marcher, of No. 18, Elvventh Street.

Mrs. Marsden Handforth, of No. 215 West Twentieth St, N. Y.

Mrs. Simons, wife of John W. Simons, of No. 67 Eldridge Street, one child and servant.

Child and nurse of Mr. Elmore Thompson, of No. 180 Henry-st., N. Y.

Hon. Stephen Allen, of N. Y.

Isaac D. Sands, of No 86 Stanton-st., New York.

Mrs. Betty Williams, colored, of Poughkeepsie.

Total missing—11.

Of course this list of missing embraces only those who are pretty surely known to be drowned. Dozens may be lost who have not yet been inquired for.

The Albany Evening Journal of Friday gives the following additional names of persons whose bodies have been found:

Miss Tucker.

Eliza, a servant girl of Mr. Thompson who lost his child.

Anthony Walworth of New Orleans.

Mrs. W. Farns, Westchester County.

T. E. Simmon's two children and servant.

Mrs. Hanford, New York.

A. J. Downing, Newburg.

Miss Martha Walsworth, of N. C. Was with Mr. D.

Mrs Mary Ann Ogden and her infant daughter Angela, of 69, Perry st., N. Y.

[illegible] Rey, Cincinnati, Ohio.

[illegible] Ray, wife, and Caroline Ray, their daughter, and wife of John Chatillion, 164 Cherry-st., N. Y.

A body supposed to be John Hennikan, N. C.

Elizabeth Pearsall, Brooklyn.

Miss Julia Kavanah, Newburg.

G. K. Marcher, 18 Eleventh st., N. Y.

J. B. Schoonmaker, merchant, Jordanville, Ulster co., N. Y. (Deceased had $600 in his possession.)

Julia Hicks, Newburg.

Mrs. Haskell, Laurel Hill, N. J.

Eliza C. Bancroft, Philadelphia.

Mrs. McDaniels, wife of Mr. Isaac McDaniels, of Rutbland, Vt.

Christopher Benjamin Downing, aged 15, (colored.)

Adding these last to the list given above, we have a total of 60 persons whose bodies have been recognized. Ten bodies besides these had been found on Friday, making 70 lives known to have been lost.

The Fisheries.

Washington July 29.

Despatches were received on Wednesday night from Mr. Webster, stating that the fishery difficulties would be promptly and satisfactorily settled.

The British pretensions as generally understood are disclaimed, and extend no farther than to that portion of the ground where the British jurisdiction is undisputed.

It is said that the course of Mr. Webster upon the fishing difficulty in issuing proclamations &c., is not viewed with satisfaction by the President. It is positively asserted that Mr. Webster will positively leave the Cabinet.

Mr. Sumner denies having been a party to any bargain to secure his election.

The Senate yesterday had under discussion in executive session, a message from the President, declining to communicate to the session, the correspondence which had passed, concerning the cession of the Sandwich Islands to the U. S.

Some warmth was manifested on the subject.

Baltimore, July 30.

Mr. J. J. Speed, who was lost in the Henry Clay, belongs to this city. He was a wealthy lawyer, a bachelor, and was celebrated in this country and in Europe, for his able letter on Repudiation.

The Southern mail has arrived. Dr. Halsey, formerly of New Jersey, and a surgeon in the American army during the Mexican war, died a short time since in Vicksburgh.

Gen. Scott's letter to the Southern Rightsmen, has been received at Montgomery. It does not appear to give much satisfaction.

Joseph Reed, a brother of Hon. Wm. B. Reed, the District Attorney of Philadelphia, and attached to the U. S. Coast Survey, fell from his vessel on the night of the 28th, and was drowned.

Rome, July 30.

Gen. Armstrong, a well known prominent citizen of this place, died this A. M.

New York, July 31—2 P. M.

The steamer Humboldt sailed at noon today, taking out 131 Passengers, including Mr. A. Draper, U. S. Consul at Havre. She takes out $103,298 in specie.

Still another body has been found at Bull's Ferry, it is a female about 20 years of age. This makes the 67th body which has been recovered. Nine additional bodies have been found near Manhattanville, supposed to have been sufferers by the Henry Clay.

Another has also been found near Jersey city, two of them were colored.

The steam frigate Mississippi, Com. Perry, left east river this A. M. for the fishing grounds.

The report that other vessels had actually been ordered to the same region yet lacks confirmation.

The Colored Convention.

Baltimore, July 28th.

The Colored Convention concluded its business to-day, and adjourned sine die. The platform of principles was amended and adopted with great unanimity. It takes decided ground in favor of emigration, and without recommending, is favorable to Liberia. It also proposes measures for the education and elevation of colored people, and the obtaining of proper information in relation to Liberia, the West Indies and other points of emigration. The Convention adjourned to meet next year.

Washington, July 31.

The Mexican minister closes the last letter on the Tehuantepec question, and has no proposition to make.

The U. S. Government closes the matter by four points.

1st. That the U. S. have a right under national courtesy, to a transit for peaceable purposes.

2d. That the Mexican Government and citizens will not open the route themselves.

3d. That the U. S. will not allow any foreign nation to control the transit.

4th. That the government will not be indifferent to reclamation of citizens under the Garay grant.

The nomination of Mr. Willard as P. M. at Troy which has been several months before the Senate was confirmed to-day.

Com. Perry has been ordered to proceed to the fishing grounds.

A special commission will accompany Com. Long to the fishing ground.

The Reciprocity Bill will be reported to the House on Monday, which provides that the inhabitants of the United States shall have the same right as British subjects.

It is now stated that Mr. Webster was offered either the choice of returning to Washington or resign—he chose the former, and that he will be in this city next week.

New Orleans July 29.

Accounts from the city of Mexico to the 14th inst. have been received. Much alarm prevails in consequence of hordes of Indians making incursions within 200 miles of the city. Several battles have been fought between the Mexicans and Indians, in which the former were defeated with a considerable loss. The army worm has made its its appearance on the Mississippi and Red river—several crops have been destroyed.

Arrival of the Prometheus.

New York, July 30.

Steamship Prometheus, Captain Graffin, which sailed from San Juan 19th inst., arrived at this port Thursday afternoon at half-past 2 o'clock, bringing us five days later intelligence from California.

The Prometheus brings $28,000 in freight, and a large amount in the hands of passengers.

The Prometheus left San Juan del Norte on Wednesday, July 21st, at 7 A. M. Arrived on Thursday the 29th inst., at 5 P. M.—8 days and ten hours.

The steamship "Pacific" left San Francisco on the evening of the 3d ult., and arrived on the 14th at San Juan del Sur.

Running time of the passengers per steamships Pacific and Prometheus, including Isthmus transit, to New York, 21 days and 4 hours.

Washington, July 28.

The Mississippi, with Commodore Perry, has been ordered forthwith to repair to the fishing grounds to protect our citizens, in all their rights, under the treaty of 1818. No seizures will, in the present stage of proceedings be permitted, unless they take place within three miles of the coast. The British interpretation of the treaty, as regards the bays, will not be permitted to be enforced until the matter has been diplomatically adjusted.

"Whig Hostility to Adopted Citizens."—Having gone into a State where "Adopted Citizens" are excluded from office by its Constitution for a Presidential Candidate, the Loco Foco papers find it necessary to divert attention from this Circumstance, by imputing "Hostility to Adopted Citizens" to the Whig party.

The Irish Patriots struggled for more than thirty years to obtain from the British Government rights and privileges which the Constitution of New Hampshire denies to "Adopted Citizens."

The Pierce family, if the Boston Post, Albany Argus, &c, &c, may be taken as authority, have borne sway in New Hampshire for many years; and yet the obnoxious features that excludes one class of citizens from a just participation in the advantages of Goverment remains in the Constitution. With such a candidate for President, it does not become his supporters to talk of "Whig Hostility to Adopted Citizens."—Albany Evening Journal.

Supreme Court Judges.—The Pierce and King democracy have a state convention at Madison, on Wednesday next, to nominate candidates for Judges of the Supreme Court. It is possible this convention may nominate men generally acceptable, but for several reasons, not at all probable. The very basis of organization makes fitness for the place a secondary consideration, devotion to Pierce and King being the first. In this way one half the talent of the state, and very possibly the best half, will be thrown out of the calculation entirely, and in addition, they will not be likely to get the best men of their own party, for the reason that it is the men who seek the nomination that get it and the best men do not seek it. So the chances in favor of getting the best men of the state by this nomination, are very remote. It behoves the people therefore to be looking elsewhere for a point on which to concentrate action. To commence the matter, we suggest for this section, the name of Marshall M Strong, or Edward V. Whiton, (without however any disparagement to others) to our cotemporaries, as men we believe to be well qualified and acceptable. Can we have John H. Tweedy, or some equally good man, from Milwaukee, or that section, and cannot the north or west put forward some good man to complete the ticket. Let us have a ticket, without regard to party, that will honor the bench and state, and we shall have no trouble to elect it.—Kenosha Telegraph.

The Jenny Lind.—A very fair running but somewhat rough looking little craft from Lake Winnebago, called the Jenny Lind, arrived from below on Sunday. She came up to go into the Minnesota river trade, and will stay if she meets with sufficient encouragement.—Minnesotian.

Death of Judge Sandford.—The death of Lewis H. Sandford of the Supreme Court Bench of the city of New York, creates a vacancy in that tribunal which will not be easily filled. He was on his way to this place, where he expected to meet his family. The Evening Post understands that he had been afflicted for some time with an obstinate diarrhoea, which added to the debility arising from his severe judicial labors, has terminated thus fatally to himself and sadly to his family, to his profession, and to the judiciary, of which he was a pillar and an ornament. Judge Sandford went to New York about fifteen years since, from Seneca County, where he was known as a lawyer of acuteness, learning, and industry. His talents were soon appreciated in the city, and in the course of a few years, in 1843, we believe, he was appointed assistant Vice-Chancellor of that Circuit. While holding this office, he published two volumes of decisions, which are relied upon with great respect by the profession wherever they are known. Upon the reorganization of the judiciary under the new constitution in 1847, Mr. Sandford was elected a Judge of the Superior Court of the city, which office he held at the time of his decease. He was about forty-six years of age.—Buffalo Commercial.

To the Public.—Some alarm having been excited in the public mind, by the recent sudden death of several newly arrived German Emigrants, it has been thought best to state the facts of the case in brief, in order to do away with any unnecessary apprehension. The emigrants alluded to, reached this place in a very destitute condition—after an unusually protracted sea-voyage, in the hold of a ship, and an inland voyage of great exposure and hardship, without proper food or any precaution to preserve health. The first death, that of the mother, occurred in a few hours after their arrival. Of the others, five have since died—two of the ship fever and the others of the cholera. Four still remain sick, but are believed to be convalescent—needing but the exercise of common caution, and nourishing food, to restore them to health.—Madison Palladium.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE TRIBUNE.

SCOTT Leads the Column!—Forward!

"Now, brothers, now is the hour!"

THE publishers of THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE proffer copies of their regular and full Weekly issue (eight large pages, each six columns, of Literature, Politics and News) for the remainder of the Presidential Campaign, commencing with the 7th of August and closing with Nov. 25th, when we confidently hope to announce their triumph,—on the following terms:—

1 copy for the 16 weeks	$0 37½
6 copies, to one address	2 00
10 copies do do	3 00
25 copies do do	7 50

Payment in all cases to accompany the order.

The selection of Winfield Scott for President and William A. Graham for Vice-President, has gratified our ardent wishes and strengthened our earnest hopes. Our conviction has long been fixed that Gen. Scott is the very man fitted and marked out by his heroic achievements—his inestimable services, at critical periods, in preserving our National tranquillity and preventing the effusion of blood—by his unquestioned integrity, his self-denying patriotism, his unsectional position and his humanity—to unite the Whig Masses in one enthusiastic, invincible host and lead them on to victory. So believing, we have labored and hoped for his nomination, and we now confidently look to the result to justify our sanguine anticipations.

The Tribune, standing on its own Platform and knowing no other authority but truth, will do its utmost for the election of Scott and Graham; but it will not be absorbed by Political discussion. We have chosen to proffer Campaign subscribers a large sheet rather than a small and cheaper one, because the postage is the same, and because we wish to extend the knowledge of what The Tribune habitually is. The letters of our Associate, Bayard Taylor, who next writes us from Syria, the ruins of Nineveh, Constantinople, &c, will appear every week, with reviews of new Books, Proceedings of Congress and the general Foreign and Domestic News of the Day. If there is another journal in America more valuable or interesting than The Tribune, it is not because more money or labor is spent thereon.

All the Editions of The Tribune are printed in large Quarto form, on a sheet 31 by 42 inches, showing eight large and compact pages of reading matter. About half the Daily is devoted to Advertisements, very few of which appear in our other issues. No ten dollar daily in the world contains more reading matter than The Tribune, which is afforded at $5 per annum, or $1¼ for three months.

SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE:

One copy (per annum) $3; Two do. $5; Ten do. $20.

WEEKLY TRIBUNE:

One copy (per annum) $2; Three do. $5; [illegible] do. $[illegible]; Twenty do. (to one address) $20.

Payment is in all cases required in advance.

Subscriptions for The Campaign Tribune, or either of our regular issues, are respectfully solicited. All notes of specie paying banks taken at par and may be remitted at our risk. Please address

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Office of the Sup't and Insp'r of Lights,
Buffalo, July 12, 1852.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at my Office, 31 Oak Street, until Monday noon, August 2d, 1852, for building a LIGHT-HOUSE in the village of Two Rivers, Wisconsin, of the description mentioned, &c., as follows:—

[illegible] hard brick, laid in best Rosendale cement, [illegible] by eighteen; Cellar under the whole house, [illegible] feet to the clear under the flooring joists. Cellar walls one foot thick, floor paved with hard brick. Door to cellar [illegible] with steps to go down. Two windows [illegible] Walls of the house one foot thick [illegible] feet above the cellar walls, where the [illegible] joists are to be laid on. Then carried up three feet to the plates. Chimney in each end, one [illegible] the other a hearth and flue for a cooking stove. [illegible] Stairs to lead into the attic. [illegible] Attic divided into two chambers, space between eight feet. [illegible] Lower floor joists eight by three inches [illegible] apart. Attic floor joists seven by three [illegible] over the partition [illegible] to be timber seven inches [illegible] to form a [illegible] for the [illegible] Roof rectangular. Rafters [illegible] inches, two feet six inches apart. Covered with good seasoned boards shingled with the best pine shingles [illegible] inches to the weather, nailed with copper or composition nails. In the centre of the house [illegible] tower, eight feet diameter at [illegible] Posts seven inches square to run up [illegible] The diameter of [illegible] seven feet two inches, [illegible] seven inch, [illegible] cross timbers. On the head of the posts a [illegible] deck, eleven feet diameter at the [illegible] Timber seven by six inches covered with [illegible] Seams calked [illegible] and covered with [illegible] copper [illegible] well nailed. Coving each side [illegible] nailed with composition nails. In the deck [illegible] to enter the lantern, as large as the space between the timbers will admit. Scuttle door two inch plank covered with copper. The tower and chimneys well [illegible] with sheet lead. To be three windows in each room and in each chamber, 12 lights each, 12 by 8. Door in front of the house, one from the entry into each room, one to each closet, and one to each chamber. In one of the rooms a door to go into the cellar, and another to go into the porch. The doors to be inch thick, except the front door, which is to be 1½ inch, all to be four panel, except the front door, which is to have [illegible] lights. Good latches and hinges, and lock on the front door. All the floors to be laid double. Stairs to lead from the attic floor to the lantern. The two rooms, entries, closets, chambers and space between, to be lathed and plastered and finished off in a plain, decent manner.—The inside of the tower above the attic entry, to be boarded. Steps to the front door.

Attached to the back of the house a frame porch, 12 by 10 feet, boarded and shingled with pine shingles; one window, 12 lights, 8 by 10; door with hinges, latch, and bolt; [illegible], and necessary shelves; gutters back and front of the house, with trunks to lead the water into the cistern. All the wood work of the house, except the roofs and inside of the porch, to be painted two coats.

On the top of the tower to be a wrought iron lantern, [illegible] height and diameter to contain six lights in each octagon, 16 by 22 inches. Two copper panes, 12 by 16. In [illegible] of the copper panes to be ventilators constructed, to admit the air when required, and to keep out the water. Lantern posts, 1½ inch square, to run down three feet through the deck, bolted on to the inside of the posts. The top of the tower a dome formed by 16 rafters, [illegible] in an iron hoop 12 inches diameter, 3 inches wide, [illegible] thick, covered with 32 oz. copper, to come down and rivet on the top of the sashes, which are to be 3 inches wide. On the top of of the dome a traversing ventilator and vane, covered with copper, ventilator 15 inches diameter, 20 inches high; vane 30 inches long, 12 wide; rabbets of the sashes ¾ inch deep. In one of the octagons to be a door 4 by 2 feet, covered with copper, to shut tight into rabbets with two strong turnbuttons and handle.—Around the lantern to be an iron railing, post 1½ inch square, to stand off 12 inches from the outside of the post of the lantern, feet to [illegible] 2 inches into the deck, the top secured to the post of the lantern. Two railings ¾ inch, iron. Across the base of the dome an iron bar, inch square. The lantern to be glazed with the best French Paris made plate glass, ¼ inch thick. No pane to be admitted less than 3-16ths inch thick. Lantern painted two coats, black outside, inside white, copper electrical rod ¾ inch diameter, to run up one foot above the vane, and down two feet into the ground. An outhouse, five by four feet, boarded and shingled. A brick cistern in the cellar, to hold one thousand gallons, walls and bottom one foot thick, laid in cement, plastered inside with the same.

Also, a well to be sunk to such a depth as to procure good water, well walled up, with a curb, windlass, iron chain and iron hooped bucket.

The contractor is also required to fit up the light with 5 lamps and 5 14 inch reflectors, after the manner of those furnished heretofore by Winslow Lewis, Esqr., of Boston, for the different lights in the northwestern Lakes; to furnish a tin can complete with faucets, each capable of holding 60 gallons, one diamond [illegible] full set of measures, one oil filler, two oil carriers, and one wick former.

The land purchased by the United States for the site of the light-house to be enclosed with good cedar posts and rail fence, four feet high.

No payment to be made to the contractor until the whole is completed and the same inspected and approved by the undersigned, or such person as he may appoint for the purpose. The whole to be completed in a workmanlike manner, by the first day of October, 1852.

The bids to be endorsed "Proposals for Two Rivers' Light-House."

PATENT MEDICINES.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1851, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., in the clerk's office of the District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Another Scientific Wonder!

DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S GREAT DYSPEPSIA CURER!

THE TRUE

DIGESTIVE FLUID, OR GASTRIC JUICE

PREPARED from Rennet, or the fourth Stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. Houghton, M. D., Philadelphia, Pa.

This is a truly wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation, and Debility, Curing after Nature's own method, by Nature's own Agent, the Gastric Juice.

☞ Half a teaspoonful of Pepsin, infused in water will digest or dissolve, Five Pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the stomach.

Pepsin is the chief element, or Great Digestive Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an Artificial Digestive Fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation the pains and evils of Indigestion and Dyspepsia are removed, just as they would be by a healthy Stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspeptics, curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The Scientific Evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree Curious and Remarkable.

SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE.

Baron Liebig in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An Artificial Digestive Fluid, analagous to the Gastric Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Calf, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed, and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."

Dr. Pereira, in his famous treatise on "Food and Diet," published by Fowler & Wells, New York, page 35, states the same great fact, and describes the method of preparation. There are few higher authorities than Dr. Pereira.

Dr. Combe, in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a diminution of the due quantity of the Gastric Juice is a prominent and all prevailing cause of Dyspepsia;" and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding everything else to fail, had resource to the Gastric Juice, obtained from the stomachs of living animals, which proved completely successful.

Dr. Graham, author of the famous works on "Vegetable Diet," says: "It is a remarkable fact in physiology, that the stomachs of animals, macerated in water, impart to the fluid the property of dissolving various articles of food, and of effecting a kind of artificial digestion of them in no wise different from the natural digestive process."

Professor Dunglison, of the Jefferson College, Philadelphia, in his great work on Human Physiology, devotes more than fifty pages to an examination of this subject.—His experiments with Dr. Beaumont, on the Gastric Juice, obtained from the living human stomach and from animals, are well known. "In all cases," he says, "digestion occurred as perfectly in the artificial as in the natural digestions."

Dr. John W. Draper, Professor of Chemistry, in the Medical College of the University of New York, in his "Text Book of Chemistry," page 386, says, "It has been a question whether artificial digestion could be performed—but it is now universally admitted that it may be."

Dr. Carpenter's standard work on Physiology, which is in the library of every Physician, and is used as a Text-Book in all the Colleges, is full of evidence similar to the above, respecting the remarkable Digestive power of Pepsin, and the fact that it may be readily separated from the stomach of the calf or ox, and used for experiments in Artificial Digestion, or as a remedy for disease of the Stomach, and deficient secretion of Gastric Juice.

All modern works on Chemistry, Materia Medica, and Physiology, and all good Medical Dictionaries, describe the character and properties of Pepsin, and state many interesting details respecting it.

The fact that an Artificial Digestive Fluid, or Gastric Juice, perfectly resembling the natural fluid, may be readily prepared, does not admit of question. The only wonder is, that it has not before been applied to the cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia—so naturally does such a use suggest itself to the mind.

AS A DYSPEPSIA CURER.

Dr. Houghton's PEPSIN has produced the most marvelous effects, in curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption. It is impossible to give the details of cases in the limits of this advertisement; but authenticated certificates have been given of more than Two Hundred Remarkable Cures, in Philadelphia, New York, and Boston alone. These were nearly all desperate cases, and the cures were not only rapid and wonderful but permanent.

It is a great Nervous Antidote, and particularly useful for tendency to Bilious disorder, Liver complaint, Fever and Ague, or badly treated Fever and Ague, and the evil effects of Quinine, Mercury, and other drugs upon the Digestive Organs, after a long sickness. Also, for excess in eating and the too free use of ardent spirits. It almost reconciles Health with Intemperance.

OLD STOMACH COMPLAINTS.

There is no form of Old Stomach Complaints which it does not seem to reach and remove at once. No matter how bad they may be, it gives instant Relief! A single dose removes all the unpleasant symptoms; and it only needs to be repeated for a short time to make these good effects permanent. Purity of Blood and Vigor of Body follow at once. It is particularly excellent in case of Nausea, Vomiting, Cramps, Soreness of the pit of the stomach, distress after eating, low, cold state of the Blood, Heaviness, Lowness of Spirits, Despondency, Emaciation, Weakness, tendency to Insanity, Suicide, &c.

Dr. Houghton's Pepsin is sold by nearly all the dealers in fine drugs and Popular Medicines, throughout the United States. It is prepared in Powder and in Fluid form—and in Prescription vials for the use of Physicians.

Private Circulars for the use Physicians, may be obtained of Dr. Houghton or his Agents, describing the whole process of preparation and giving the authorities upon which the claims of this new remedy are based. As it is not a Secret Remedy no objection can be raised against its use by Physicians in respectable standing and regular practice. Price One Dollar per bottle.

☞ Observe this.—Every bottle of the genuine Pepsin bears the written signature of J. S. Houghton, M. D., sole proprietor, Philadelphia, Pa. Copyright and Trade Mark secured.

☞ Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

CONTAINING NO ALCOHOL.

THE best and strongest certified medicine in the world for the cure of Dyspepsia in all its forms—such as headache, heartburn, habitual costiveness, acidity of stomach, loss of appetite, piles, incipient consumption, debility arising from protracted fevers, fever and ague, exposure to heat or cold, old age, and diseases arising from imperfect digestion, or deranged condition of the stomach. It is also an excellent remedy and not surpassed by any medicine in use, for females suffering from uterine or nervous derangement.

Among the numerous and highly respectable certificates we refer to the following:

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer.
Fitzwilliam Homer, Esq., Boston.
James C. Dunn, Esq., City Treasurer, Boston.
Hon. Marcus Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.
Hon. Wm. Woodbridge, formerly Governor of Michigan, now U. S. Senator.
Hon. T. J. Morehead, formerly Governor of Kentucky now U. S. Senator.

HAWKINS' STAVE DRESSING MACHINE.

PATENTED JULY 22, 1851.

THIS machine is now in successful operation at the shop of Wm. Hawkins in this city, and will dress Staves for

Packing, Flour and Whiskey BARRELS, and PIPES or HOGSHEADS, at the rate of

600 Whiskey or 800 Flour Barrel Staves

PER HOUR,

straight, winding or crooked. In fact, any stave that can be worked by hand will be dressed by this machine, either the light or slack work from 22 inches to 72 inches in length, of any required width, and to any required bilge, and in the most perfect manner. The stave passes through the machine a single time, is dressed by rotary cutters and is thereby ready for the truss-hoops. The dressing of the stave and jointing of the edges of the stave is performed perfectly. The machine is made of iron, is strong, and durable, and is not liable to get out of repair. Six horse power is sufficient to drive the machine with all the speed necessary.

The Subscribers having purchased of Wm. Hawkins the patent right for the United States are prepared to sell rights for States, Counties, or the running of single machines, and to furnish and set up the machines, warranted to perform perfectly. In the great saving of expense of transportation effected over the rough staves, the rapidity and perfect manner with which it performs its work constitute the value of this machine.

Satisfactory testimonials can be furnished if desired.

We would respectfully call the attention of our many friends, and the public generally, to an instrument we have recently imported from Paris, called a from which the above cut was taken. By it we can take the exact shape, and unerringly fit the most irregular head. Many can testify to the inconvenience, and annoyance, and actual pain they are subjected to, in breaking in Hats that will not fit. By this ingenious contrivance, this very great annoyance is done away; as the Hats are made to fit perfectly the first time.

"Conformateur,"

Another great advantage is, by keeping a copy of the impression, we can at all times fit our customers from all parts of the country.

We invite all who desire a perfect fit in a Hat to call and leave an impression of their head; and all those who take pleasure in witnessing the inventions of the ingenious, to call and see the operation of this curious instrument.

Having adopted the CASH SYSTEM (which all will readily acknowledge to be the best,) we are enabled to sell the best Silk Hat made, at the extreme low price of $3.25; surpassing any $5 Hat sold in this city. Our Hats are all manufactured by ourselves, and in offering them to our customers, we do so, with the confident assurance, they are all we recommend them to be. We invite all who do not wish to pay two profits upon a Hat, and are willing to save 25 per cent, to call and see us.

SMALTS, Deep Blue, Brown, Green and Black, at H. BOSWORTH & SONS.

PATENT MEDICINES.

LIVER COMPLAINT,

JAUNDICE, DYSPEPSIA, CHRONIC OR NERVOUS DEBILITY, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, AND all diseases arising from a Disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, DEFICIENCY OF PERSPIRATION, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great Depression of Spirits, CAN BE EFFECTUALLY CURED BY DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN

BITTERS,

Prepared by Doct. C. M. Jackson,

AT THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,

120 Arch st., Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skillful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affection of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

[From the Boston Bee.]

The Editor said, Dec. 22d: "Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters, for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that, in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor, a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use."

SCOTT'S WEEKLY,

One of the best literary papers published, said, August 25: "Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty, as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitution will find these Bitters advantageous to health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

The Daily Sun says:—"It is one of the best medicines of the age for Jaundice and Liver Complaint."

Neal's Gazette says:—"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters we know to be an excellent article, fulfilling in every respect what is claimed for it by the advertiser."

The Evening Bulletin says:—"The celebrated German Bitters are said to be an invaluable remedy for Jaundice, Dyspepsia, and Nervous Complaints."

"The Daily News, July 21, says:—"A Medicine"—We speak knowingly of Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters, when we say it is a blessing of this age, and in diseases of the biliary, digestive and nervous systems, it has not, we think, an equal. It is a vegetable preparation, and made without alcohol, and to all invalids we should recommend it as worthy of their confidence."

The Dispatch says:—"As a medicine for Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Nervous Debility, and Dyspepsia, it has been found invaluable, effecting cures, and thoroughly eradicating disease, when all other medicines have failed."

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt, after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver—it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to Females or Infants with safety and reliable benefit, at any time.

LOOK WELL TO THE MARKS OF THE GENUINE.

They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and the name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR ALL PAIN MAY BE FOUND IN THE USE OF PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

Opinion of the most prominent Druggists and Merchants of Cincinnati in its favor.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 20, 1849.

We the undersigned, Druggists and Merchants of this city, have been acquainted with and sold for 2 or 3 years past, an article of Family Medicine, known as PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER, and we would assure the public that in every instance, so far as we know, it has given the best satisfaction to the purchaser. We can recommend it to the public as an article of Great Merit and Virtue; indeed, we never knew an article of Medicine become so deservedly popular in so short a time, which is proved by the fact of its extensive sale, and constantly increasing demand.

☞ The Pain Killer has been eminently successful in the following disorders: Fever and Ague; Pain in the Head; Rheumatic Affections; Complaints of the Kidneys; Bruises, Sores, and severe Burns; sudden Colds and Coughs; Skin Diseases of every kind; Affections of the Bowels; Liver Complaint; Weak Stomach; General Debility; Dyspepsia; Piles; Boils; Ringworms; Diarrhœa; Dysentery; Cholera Morbus and Asiatic Cholera, and many other diseases.

A Word of Caution to the Public!

Dealers in Pain Killer are cautioned against buying or selling a spurious article of Pain Killer, manufactured by White & Co. of Buffalo, which is a worthless imitation and the pamphlets a "BASE FORGERY" which will appear by comparing them with the Genuine. The certificates are copied verbatim. The proprietor of the Genuine Perry Davis' Pain Killer will prosecute any person, engaged in selling this spurious article, and is determined to protect himself and the public from this "infamous fraud." Many unprincipled persons, to deceive the public, and for the sake of gain, have applied the name Pain Killer or something similar to their own compounds such as Pain Destroyer, Pain Killing Compound, a real Pain Killer, &c. &c. all of which have been got up on the reputation of Perry Davis' Pain Killer. The public are cautioned against these mixtures.

I am a man, and deem nothing which relates to man foreign to my feelings.

READ! YOUTH AND MANHOOD.

A VIGOROUS Life or a premature death. KINKELIN on Self-Preservation.—Only 25 cents.

This book, just published, is filled with useful information, on the infirmities and diseases of the human system. It addresses itself alike to youth, Manhood, and Old age, and should be read by all. The valuable advice and impressive warning it gives, will prevent years of misery and suffering, and save annually thousands of lives. Parents, by reading it, will learn how to prevent the destruction of their children. A remittance of 25 cents, enclosed in a letter, addressed to Dr. Kinkelin, Philadelphia, will ensure a book, under envelope, per return of mail.

Dr. K., fifteen years resident Physician, N. W. corner of Third and Union streets, between Spruce and Pine, Philadelphia, may be consulted confidentially. He who places himself under the care of Dr. K., may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician. Persons at a distance may address Dr. K. by letter, (post paid,) and be cured at home.

Packages of Medicines, directions, &c., forwarded by sending a remittance, and put up secure from damage and curiosity. Booksellers, News Agents, Pedlars, Canvassers, and all others supplied with the above work at very low rates. feb17

THE GREAT REMEDY

FOR

PILES, HABITUAL COSTIVENESS,

FEMALE COMPLAINTS,

Nervous Debility,

DYSPEPSIA,

OR

Loss of Appetite.

THE CONSTANT USE OF PHYSIC FOR THE ABOVE-NAMED COMPLAINTS, IS INJUDICIOUS AND DANGEROUS:

This any Physician will tell you—The more physic used, the more it requires—at last the tone and action of the bowels are destroyed, and the patient becomes afflicted with numerous kinds of nervous disorders.

The Genuine DR. TOWNSEND'S Sarsaparilla, has never failed in a single instance of curing the Piles and Costiveness, which to Females, is the great cause of those complaints which consume their strength, waste their Nervous energy, and enfeeble the whole Constitution. Mental Weakness is consequent upon physical prostration.

This Medicine acts as a simple, but powerful Tonic. It checks the tendency to exhaustion,

RENOVATES THE BLOOD,

Allays NERVOUS EXCITEMENT, and reanimates the Whole Body with New Life.

Dr. JAMES R. CHILTON,

The most celebrated Chemist in the United States, has had charge of the Manufactory for more than a year, and has made many important improvements in the Medicine—from one to two teaspoonfuls of the improved Sarsaparilla, is all that is required for a dose, to act as a mild Alterative and Tonic.

Beware of Counterfeits.

Dr. Chilton's Certificate, printed on green paper, will be found on every bottle prepared since February, 1850, as well as Dr. S. P. Townsend's signature, on steel plate label on the outside wrapper.

Principal Office, in New York, 82 Nassau street; in London, 355 Strand, next door to the Lyceum Theatre.

For sale by S. JOHNSON, Jr., Wholesale and Retail Druggist, 151 East Water-st., Milwaukee. Agent for above medicine.
